SCHEDULE E- PLANNING

The fees listed below are the application fees and deposits for each service. Fees and deposits must be paid in advance of any work commencing to cover anticipated costs that the City may incur. Examples of such costs include, but are not limited to, planning, engineering, hearing examiner, appraisal and advertising.

When fees or deposits cannot be collected in advance, the City will send an invoice for actual costs incurred. All invoices are payable upon receipt. Work may cease until invoices are paid in full.

Statements and invoices will be mailed by the City at least quarterly. Statements and invoices will indicate how deposits were applied and copies of invoices from vendors will be included.

Once a deposit has been exhausted, a new deposit of at least the same amount, at a minimum, will be required for continued work by the City and/or its vendors. The City will determine the additional amount needed to continue work. Failure to remit additional funds upon notification may cause the City to discontinue work until such deposit is received.

Permits, certificates of occupancy, final plat approval, planning and zoning reviews, construction plan reviews, construction observation and other such actions by the City will be on hold until payment is received and all fees, deposits and actual costs due and owing are paid in full. Preliminary plat, final plat, certificates of occupancy, issuance of permits and other approvals will not occur until full payment has been made to the City.

SCHEDULE H – SEWER

The charges in the Utility Master Fee Schedule will be automatically increased each year on January 1st, based on the percent reflected on the previous year’s Consumer Price Index for Urban Wage Earners and Clerical Workers, the U.S. City Average (CPI-W) from September to September per City of Connell Resolution 2023-07. The first CPI adjustment will be included on the January 2024 billing (based on December 2023 consumption).

Table A – Basic Sewer Service Charge

Classification	Rate
Single-Family Residential Unit*	$49.68
Multiple-Family Residential Units* (including duplexes, triplexes, and apartments)	$49.68 per single-family unit
Non-Residential* (including commercial, motels, hotels, and industrial; excluding schools and negotiated rates)	$49.68 plus $16.58 multiplied by the number of customers ERU’s (equivalent residential unit) minus one ERU.
Schools*	$2.58 per student per month for twelve months per year computed on attendance during the school year and certified by the school superintendent to the Clerk-Treasurer in October each year; ensuing monthly billings are adjusted each January.
Department of Corrections	Negotiated rate

Table B – System Participation Fees

Fees are based on Equivalent Residential Unit (ERU). Unless specifically provided otherwise, fees for connections involving more than one ERU are charged according to the number of ERU’s calculated for the service to the new connection. Industry standards for calculating appropriate ERU base values related to specific types of use such as those contained within the Criteria for Sewage Works Design (the “Orange Book”) published by the Washington State Department of Ecology may be used by applicants in determining system participation fees.

Classification	Rate
Single-Family Residential Unit*	$1,222.00
